

Miscarriage of Justice Day 8 October 2011

at the Arches Project, Adderley Street,
Birmingham, B9 4EE

Doors open 10.00 am

No charge, no need to book – just come along

Paddy Hill:
More miscarriages of justice today than 20 years ago

10.30 – 12.30

Workshops: please bring your questions and tell us about your own experiences

Getting the best out of solicitors / obtaining case documents, led by Dr Andrew Green

Starting a group
led by Steve Gray

Banner Making
led by Ange Drozdowski

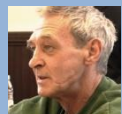

2.00 – 5.00

Public Meeting, chaired by Ange Drozdowski

Kevin McMahon will introduce United Against Injustice

Paddy Joe Hill: What has changed in the last 20 years?

Dr Michael Naughton, founder of Bristol University Innocence Project and the Innocence Network UK

Michelle Diskin, sister of Barry George (wrongly convicted of the murder of Jill Dando)

Sam Raincock, Cell Site Analysis expert

Janet Cunliffe on the campaign to abolish the Joint Enterprise Law

Corinne Mitchell, mother of Luke Mitchell, on the need for support campaigns

Hosted by West Midlands Against Injustice

unitedagainstinjustice.org.uk